

MILITARY FUNERAL
FOR GEN. GRESHAMALL WASHINGTON MOURNS THE SECRETARY'S DEATH.

Remains, After the Exercises at the Capitol, Will Be Shipped to Chicago Tomorrow, Escorted by the President and the Cabinet—The End Came at 1:15 This Morning.

Washington, May 28.—[Special.]—All Washington is mourning the death of Secretary Gresham today. His son arrived in Washington at 6 o'clock this morning and the whole family are prostrated. A military funeral is proposed here after which the body will be taken to Chicago tomorrow, escorted by the president and his cabinet. The interment will probably be at Arlington, Ind. Flags are at half mast on all the government buildings and a special cabinet meeting will be held this afternoon to arrange the details. Secretary Gresham died at 1:15 o'clock this morning at his rooms at the Arlington hotel. All hope of his recovery was practically abandoned when his spell occurred shortly before 6 o'clock last evening. The most powerful heart stimulants known to medical science, nitro glycerine and digitalis, were injected periodically, and an infusion of normal saline solution was made through an opened vein in the arm. He recovered slightly, but owing to severe rigors shortly before 11 o'clock he began to fail rapidly, and his vitality began to ebb. The three physicians saw that the end was near, and at 12 o'clock withdrew to the ante-room, leaving in the sick chamber only the members of his family, Mrs. Gresham, her daughter, Mrs. Andrews, and son-in-law, Mr. Andrews, and the nurses.

Up to that time he had been conscious and talked at intervals. His words were full of bravery. He fully appreciated his condition and spoke words of hope and cheer to his stricken wife and daughter. Sometimes his mind wandered slightly and went back to the days of long ago, recalling incidents of life and happiness in the springtime of his life. He spoke, too, of his absent son and his private secretary, Mr. Landis, whom he loved as a son, and who, like his son, was speeding to his bedside, all too late.

But just before the physicians retired he ceased speaking, though he appeared to be conscious. Mrs. Gresham sat at the bedside smoothing his fevered brow and occasionally reading to him from the Bible passages which he loved. As the end approached his pulse became hardly perceptible. Gradually his eyes became glazed and closed. Mrs. Gresham, with noble and heroic fortitude, continued to read the words of the gospel to her departing husband. Her daughter and son-in-law stood with bowed heads at the side of the couch. At 1:15 o'clock his breathing ceased; a peaceful shadow passed over his pale countenance; his pulse flickered, and the sorrowing family were in the presence of death.

One of the nurses conveyed the news that the end had come to the physicians in the next room, and they in turn brought it to the watchers in the reception room. Those present in the reception room were Secretary and Mrs. Lamont, Secretary Herbert, Assistant Secretary of State Uhl and Assistant Secretary of State McAdoo, First Assistant Postmaster General Jones, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Hamilton, Attorney General Olney, Colonel Corbin of the army, and Private Secretary Thurber. In the hotel lobby outside were half a hundred of the secretary's friends.

No arrangements will be made for the funeral until the arrival of Otto Gresham, who is on the way from Chicago. Mr. Gresham's illness began May 1, when he was attacked with acute pleurisy. The effusion filled the pleural cavity, but the condition yielded to treatment, until last Saturday, when he suffered a relapse, accompanied by acute pneumonia. His condition after that time was extremely critical. His heart action became feeble, requiring the constant administration of the most powerful heart stimulants. One or the other of his physicians, Drs. Johnson and Prentiss, or both, were constantly with him. His pulse reached 160, and was so feeble that it could barely be counted. But for the stimulants, he would have died. Nitro-glycerine and strychnine were given continuously, hypodermically, together with digitalis and whiskey. He was able to take no nourishment save in a liquid form, principally milk punches, and the whole effort of the physicians was directed toward sustaining and strengthening him. The right pleural cavity was filled with the effused fluid, and the lungs compressed so as to make breathing impossible.

About 5:30 o'clock Monday evening he sank rapidly, and death was momentarily expected. Restoratives were applied and hypodermic injections of nitro-glycerine (the most powerful of all heart stimulants) and strychnine were made. His blood vessels were in a state of collapse, and his condition was so extremely critical that the physicians decided that transfusion was immediately necessary to stimulate the heart. Dr. Van Rensselaer, an expert young surgeon and son-in-law of Dr. Johnson was hastily sent for. He opened a vein in the left arm and infused a pint and a half of normal saline solution. The operation was successful, and about 9 o'clock the stricken patient had revived somewhat.

The secretary lay in one of a suite of rooms on the ground floor of the Arlington Hotel. Secretary Lamont, First Assistant Postmaster General Jones, Assistant Secretary of State Uhl, Chief Justice Fuller, Colonel Corbin and Captain Fuller, of the army, remained in parlor A, connecting Secretary Gresham's suite, receiving such persons as were admitted and answering inquiries. Walter Quintin Gresham was born March 17, 1822, near Lanesville, Harrison county, Ind. The Greshams are of English ancestry. His father, William Gresham, was sheriff of a backwoods county, and was killed in the discharge of his duties. In his boyhood young Gresham did the usual work of a farmer's son and studied his books at night. His education was gained by the hardest kind of work and self-denial. He went to the district school, and when he was 16 years old he had an opportunity to attend the Corydon Seminary. He got a clerkship in the county auditor's office, and this helped him to pay his board and school expenses. After two years at the academy he spent one year at the Bloomington university. On his return to Corydon he secured a place in the county clerk's office. There he studied law under the direction of Judge William A. Porter. He was admitted to the bar when 21 years old and began practice at once.

Previous to the birth of the republican party Mr. Gresham was a whig in politics. His law partner was a delegate to the convention which nominated C. Fremont for the presidency against Buchanan. Young Vote rose to 123 on the third ballot, and then dwindled to 59 on the eighth and last. The People's party in convention at Omaha, July, 1892, practically offered Judge Gresham its presidential nomination, which he positively refused. His final departure from the party at whose birth he had assisted came in the last campaign. He announced his intention of voting for Mr. Cleveland in all after dated October 22, 1892, and addressed to Major Bluford Wilson, who was solicitor of the treasury under Grant.

After Mr. Cleveland's election Judge Gresham was offered the premiership of the cabinet and accepted. He was appointed secretary of state March 4, 1893. During his short term as postmaster-general Mr. Gresham accomplished much. Letter postage to Canada was reduced and the postal convention with Mexico was signed. Another important service he rendered to the country was the re-establishment of the fast mails.

As secretary of state in the present administration Mr. Gresham had to deal with, perhaps, more vexatious, intricate, and delicate diplomatic affairs than had fallen to the lot of most secretaries of state. While he was deep in the Hawaiian negotiations, he was obliged suddenly to give immediate attention to the Behring Sea fisheries. Here he practically carried his point against the trained diplomats of England.

By a clause in the Wilson tariff act congress had swept away all of the carefully construed reciprocity treaties negotiated by the preceding administration. This caused dissatisfaction among the nations with which the United States had such treaties, and the storm fell upon Secretary Gresham's head. His efforts to placate these countries were crowned with brilliant success. Then in the constructive side of diplomacy Mr. Gresham had much to his credit. He did all that a foreign officer could do properly to prevent the late Chinese-Japanese war, lost no opportunity at any stage to bring it to an end, and ultimately, when peace was restored, it was through the good offices of the American ministers in China and Japan, acting under Secretary Gresham's instructions. And while he was doing this he was also using his good offices to prevent a war between Mexico and Guatemala, both full of fighting spirit and difficult of restraint, and in this he succeeded completely, although he was obliged to use very strong representations to do so.

While the amount of money involved was insignificant in the case of the claims of the United States citizens against Venezuela, Secretary Gresham managed through a joint commission to secure a judicial enunciation of a doctrine that is of the greatest importance to the civilized world, namely, that the government of a country is responsible for the abuse or ill-treatment of foreigners by insurgents.

But the genius of the secretary was shown in his brightest lights in three incidents that occurred during his administration and the fact that in two of the three he had to contend with great powers indicates that he made no distinction when the time came to claim rights for his own country. The first of these cases amounted to a declaration to Europe that the United States would not permit private claims to be collected from American republics where our citizens had pecuniary interests. This was the case at San Domingo when the French war ships which had come there to enforce the collection of a private claim were withdrawn with a very strong hint from Secretary Gresham, conveyed through Ambassador Eustis, that the United States would not regard such a course as a friendly manifestation.

Again in Bluefields, when the British marines occupied the bluffs, they were promptly withdrawn when Secretary Gresham called upon Great Britain for an explanation of their landing and securing a disclaimer of any wrong purposes. And again, when the Spanish government undertook to stop an American steamer by a cannon shot, Mr. Gresham called for and secured a very prompt apology. Almost his last official action before he fell mortally ill was to initiate the correspondence with France intended to secure justice for ex-Consul Waller, whom he believed to have been ill-treated by the summary French court-martial in Madagascar, and in whose interest he notified Ambassador Eustis to interfere. It is insisted upon by the secretary's friends that he was brought to his last illness by the great exertions he was obliged to put forth to discharge his official duties to his own satisfaction.

Judge Gresham was a man of action more than study, and yet he found time for wide reading. He possessed a thorough and minute knowledge of the history of the government and the country, of the various measures of the various administrations, of the great debates, and the men who shaped and influenced legislation in their day, many of whom are now forgotten. He understood the relation of this country to foreign nations thoroughly, and as secretary of state sought to apply the principles of justice to international controversies as he would from the bench to individuals.

Talk of His Successor. Washington, May 28.—There is already considerable discussion as to the probable successor of Secretary Gresham. This discussion has been going on for some days, as even in case of recovery it was known the secretary would not be able to take up active work again at the head of the state department. The men most prominently mentioned for the position are: First Assistant Secretary Edwin P. Uhl of Grand Rapids, Mich.; Postmaster-General Wilson; Senator Gray of Delaware; Mr. Whitney; Ambassadors Bayard and Eustis. Don M. Dickinson of Michigan is not thought likely to be the successor.

BASEBALL REPORT. No Contests Yesterday in the National League—Other Games. No games were played in the National League yesterday, those arranged to take place at Pittsburgh and New York being prevented by wet grounds. The schedule for to-day is as follows: Chicago at Brooklyn, Cleveland at New York, St. Louis at Boston, Cincinnati at Philadelphia, Louisville at Baltimore, Pittsburgh at Washington.

Michigan State League Games. At Kalamazoo, Mich.—Kalamazoo, 21; Battle Creek, 12. At Port Huron, Mich.—Port Huron, 6; Adrian, 10. At Owosso, Mich.—Lansing, 17; Owosso, 8.

In the Western League. At Indianapolis, Ind.—Indianapolis, 21; Minneapolis, 11. At Toledo, O.—Toledo, 12; St. Paul, 13. At Detroit, Mich.—Detroit, 12; Kansas City, 13. At Grand Rapids, Mich.—Grand Rapids, 9; Milwaukee, 0. (Forfeited.)

Liquor License for Clubs. Lansing, Mich., May 28.—The house yesterday passed a bill requiring all social clubs to pay a $500 liquor tax, but exempts Arbeiter societies having seventy-five members or other societies dispensing liquors to provide a mortuary fund. The house also passed the Shaw newspaper libel bill by a vote of 73 to 9. Its special provisions are that juries shall make separate return of findings of damages to feelings and of actual damage. The senate struck out all after the enacting clause of the Walte anti-treating liquor bill, and took the same action on the Wilbey bill, providing for payment of taxes semi-annually, and the bill prohibiting extra charges by express companies upon transportation of poultry and live stock. The house, by a vote of 43 to 43, refused to pass the senate capital punishment bill, but the vote was reconsidered and the bill tabled. It will come up again today, but it is not believed that it can pass, as it is eight votes short.

Durrant's Case Ready. San Francisco, Cal., May 28.—The case of Theodore Durrant, charged with the murders of Blanche Lamont and Winnie Williams, in Emanuel church, has been assigned to Judge Murphy, before whom Durrant will be arraigned next week. The work of the detective department is completed and the case for the people is ready to proceed without delay. Durrant's attorneys say they will not only prove their client's innocence of the murders, but will show the real murderers.

Little Work at Springfield, Ill. Springfield, Ill., May 28.—There was barely a quorum present in the house yesterday afternoon. Mr. Callahan's bill revising the election law was read a second time and made a special order for this morning. The senate held its usual Monday afternoon session of about ten minutes' duration. Mr. Coon, chairman of the committee on municipalities made a formal report on the Lowenthal frontage bill. No other business was transacted.

Couldn't Wait for the Law. Ellicott City, Md., May 28.—Jacob Henson, who murdered Daniel T. Shea, an aged grocer, about three months ago, was hanged by a mob early this morning. He was under sentence to be hanged June 7. The mob met with no resistance and broke open the jail without trouble. The negro was hanged to a tree in a lawn.

Chief of Police Byrnes Retires. New York, May 28.—Chief of Police Thomas Byrnes applied to the police board for retirement yesterday. The application was granted unanimously, and the former head of the police force of this city is now a private citizen on half pay, which is $3,000 a year. Inspector Peter Conlin was chosen to be acting chief of the department.

To Aid Chase's Family. Indianapolis, May 28.—Members of the Grand Army have been consulting regarding the necessity of providing for the family of ex-Gov. Chase, who died a few days ago, and have determined to appeal to the Grand Army posts for aid.

Dr. Buchanan Is Re-elected. Albany, May 27.—The court of appeals has sentenced Dr. Robert Buchanan to die the week beginning July 1.

EUGENE V. DEBS LOSES HIS CASE
Further Details of the Decision of the Supreme Court.

Washington, May 28.—The United States supreme court has denied the application of Eugene V. Debs, the strike leader, for a writ of habeas corpus. No more important question, with the single exception of the income tax, has come before the supreme court during the last year than the attempt of Eugene V. Debs and the other officers of the American Railway union to secure a reversal of the sentences to jail by Judge Woods for interfering with interstate commerce and the running of the mails in the great railway strike of last summer. Nearly one-third of the railway property in the United States being in the hands of receivers, appointed by the federal courts, the precedent to be established has wide application. Technically the application for writ of habeas corpus and certiorari arises from the case in equity of the Union Trust company against the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe road, since the receivership under which the circuit court exercised jurisdiction over the Santa Fe and its allied roads was created in that case. On July 2, 1894, when the great railway strike was threatening, the receivers applied to Judge Woods of the circuit court for the northern district of Illinois for an injunction against the American Railway union to prevent it from inciting employees to strike. Judge Woods signed the order presented, which was a sweeping one, enjoining the officers of the union from interfering with the mails or with interstate commerce, or from destroying property; from compelling or inducing the employees of the road to strike by violence or intimidation, or from aiding or abetting them to do any of these things.

The American Railway union decreed a strike on the Illinois Central railroad, one of those included in the injunction, and the events of that strike are matters of general knowledge. The officers of the union were brought before Judge Woods for contempt of court last December. E. V. Debs, the president, was sentenced to six months in jail, and seven others, George W. Howard, Sylvester Kellher, L. W. Rogers, James Hogan, William E. Burns, Roy M. Goodwin and Martin J. Elliott, were sentenced to three months. It appears that the injunction had been personally served on the first four officers, but Judge Woods held that its publication in the newspapers was sufficient service in itself for all the defendants.

An application was made to the supreme court for the release of the eight officers of the union by a writ of habeas corpus, and pending the decision of the supreme court they have been given their freedom under bail.

The decision of the court was read by Justice Brewer and was unanimous, there being no dissenting opinion. All contentions of the government were sustained. The conclusions of the court, as announced in Justice Brewer's opinion, were that the government of the United States was having jurisdiction over every foot of soil and over every individual within the boundaries of the United States, and that while it was one of limited powers it had sovereignty within those limitations. It had power to invoke civil courts, to remove obstructions to interstate commerce, and the civil courts had the right to enjoin those who made obstructions to such commerce. The injunction was no bar to criminal processes for acts done in violation of the injunction. The circuit court having final jurisdiction, its act was not reviewable by the supreme court on a petition for a writ of habeas corpus, and therefore the writ was denied.

It is not improbable, in view of the decision of the Supreme court, that Eugene V. Debs and the other officers of the American Railway Union now under indictments for violation of the anti-trust and the mail obstruction acts will not be called upon to stand trial. Under the decision Debs will serve his sentence of six months in jail, and it is thought that the government will consider this a sufficiently severe punishment without prosecuting the criminal cases against him or his associates.

Terre Haute, Ind., May 28.—President Eugene V. Debs of the A. R. U., whose appeal case was acted upon yesterday by the Supreme court of the United States, was seen at his home and said that while the adverse decision was unexpected by him, he was prepared for it. He said: "I shall abide by the decision with perfect composure, confidently believing that it will hasten the day of the public ownership, not only of the railroads, but of all other public utilities. I view it as the death-knell of the wage system. In the long run this decision will prove a blessing to the country."

Talk of Political Action. Galesburg, Ill., May 28.—The convention of railway trainmen yesterday discussed the question of independent political action and the sentiment was overwhelmingly in favor of supporting at the polls candidates endorsing measures favorable to railway employees regardless of political affiliation.

Ryan and Smith "Draw." Coney Island, N. Y., May 28.—Tommy Ryan and Billy Smith fought eighteen rounds at the Seaside club house last night, when the police stopped the contest and, according to agreement, the referee called it a draw. Ryan had the best of it at the end.

Case Had Been Sent Back From the Supreme Court For a New Trial and Nolle, When the Armour Packing Company Preferred a Charge of Embezzlement.

Ashland, May 28.—[Special.]—Dwight R. Dix was out of jail just five minutes last night when he was re-arrested on a charge of embezzlement preferred against him by the Armour Packing Company. The case had just been sent back from the supreme court for a new trial and had been nolle.

Two Inches of Snow. Iron Belt, Wis., May 28.—About two inches of snow fell throughout northern Wisconsin last night and the ground is covered with slush. The snow was preceded by rain, which put out the forest fires that had been spreading seriously.

BEARS IN CONTROL. Quotations of the Chicago Wheat Market Show a Loss.

Chicago, May 28.—Wheat opened strong, active and excited yesterday, and the starting point was 1½ cents higher than the close Saturday. The first quotation was 81¼ cents, and in short order a half-cent was added to this, making a top price of 81½ cents. Then the bears fell on the market with tooth and claw, and before they grew tired of the assault they had driven the price down to 78½ cents, or 3½ cents below the opening, and 3½ cents below the high point of the day. This conquest was not achieved without many struggles on the part of the bulls. There were rallies and reactions all along the line. It was a game of see-saw, now up, now down, but after ever teeter the bears' end of the plank went a little lower, and did not get so high next time. Just before the close of the session there was a rally and July wheat closed at 78½ cents. This was a net loss of 2½ cents from the opening figures and a decline of 3 cents from the highest point of the day.

Uncle Sam Asserts Himself. New York, May 28.—A special to the Herald from Guatemala City says: "Although the castigation of Angle, an American citizen, was not ordered by the Guatemalan government, the latter has answered fully and cheerfully the demand for reparation made by Minister Young. Ample compensation has been made by President Barrios for the punishment inflicted upon Angle and two other Americans by the prison guard. Minister Young will leave here for the United States Tuesday."

Iowa's Silver Convention. Des Moines, Ia., May 28.—The arrangements for the big silver meeting of June 5, in this city are about completed. There will be delegations from silver clubs at Sioux City, Stuart, Chariton, Dubuque, Council Bluffs, Marshalltown and other places. The afternoon meeting will be in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium, and in the evening Senator Teller, of Colorado, will address a great gathering at the Opera House. W. J. Bryan of Nebraska, will not be here, but Gen. Warner, of Ohio; Jos. other leaders will attend.

Filibusterers for Hawaii. Honolulu, May 20.—Per steamer China, via San Francisco, Cal., May 28.—There are many rumors here of filibustering expeditions being organized in the United States. The government received information of such a positive nature regarding the fitting out of one expedition from Puget Sound that it at once armed the steamer Lohia and commissioned it as a revenue cutter. It has made several cruises around the islands, but has not discovered any hostile vessel. All precautions will be taken by the government.

Extra Session of Congress. Washington, May 28.—Congressman Updegraff of Iowa, who is here, has information, it is claimed, that the president intends to call an extra session of the LIVth congress early in October. Mr. Updegraff says he got his pointer from leading democrats who are in close touch with the administration. He said further that the extra session would be asked to appropriate or make some other provision for raising revenue to run the government.

General Assembly Over. Pittsburgh, Pa., May 28.—The general assembly of the Presbyterian church in the United States of America adjourned yesterday at the close of the forenoon session. It had been expected by some that action would be taken against Dr. Briggs by deposition, but such a motion was not proposed. The final statement of the moderator that the church would stand by the present decisions was received with applause. A committee of thirty was named to collect the $1,000 anniversary reunion fund.

Hugh McCulloch Buried. Washington, May 28.—The funeral of Hugh McCulloch, ex-secretary of the treasury, was held at Rock Creek church yesterday. The treasury department was represented by Assistant Secretary Hamilton, Treasurer Morgan, Controller Eckels, and Assistant Treasurer Jordan.

He Accepts the Challenge. Chicago, May 28.—Last night W. H. Harvey, author of "Coin's Financial School," accepted the challenge of Roswell P. Horr of Chicago for a joint debate on silver.

Collieries Shut Down. Pana, Ill., May 28.—Penwell and Springdale collieries have shut down owing to no orders for coal.

WALTER Q. GRESHAM, U. S. Secretary of State.

Gresham did good service for "the Pathfinder" on the stump.

In 1858 he married Miss Matilda McGrain and has a son and daughter. Otto Gresham, the son, is practicing law.

He was nominated for the legislature in 1860 as a republican and was elected, though his district had a normal democratic majority of 500. As chairman of the committee on military affairs he introduced and passed a militia bill which placed Indiana almost on a war footing. He aided in procuring the assent of the Indiana legislature to the proposal to the legislature of Virginia for a conference of representatives of the border states at Washington.

Mr. Gresham was captain of a local military company called the Spencer Rifles, and when the war broke out, although his constituents wanted to reelect him to the legislature, he refused on the ground that he could be of more service to his state and his country in the ranks. He enlisted as a private in the Thirty-Eighth Regiment, and almost immediately was made its lieutenant colonel. His first service was at Shiloh. He was before Corinth, and at Vicksburg he met General Grant. After the surrender Grant and Sherman united in recommending Gresham for a brigadier's commission, and he received it. He was shot in the knee while in command of the division in Sherman's army at Leggett's Hill, before Atlanta. He never fully recovered the use of the limb thus injured.

At one time Mr. Gresham was placed in command of the post and district at Natchez. His government of that city was so wise and judicious that it is still spoken of there. March 15, 1865, he was breveted major general of volunteers for gallantry before Atlanta. He immediately resumed law practice at New with Judge Butler. In 1866 he was nominated for congress by his party, but was defeated.

In 1867 he became financial agent for his state of New York, and in 1869 President Grant, who had ever had for him a warm personal regard, offered him the collectorship of the port of New Orleans, which he declined. President Grant then urged upon him the district attorneyship of Indiana, but, as Gen. Gresham had been endeavoring to secure this office for a friend, he felt that he was obliged to refuse to consider it for himself. When, however, in December, 1869, the president invited him to become United States district judge for Indiana, Gen. Gresham accepted, and for nearly thirteen years presided on the bench with that strict impartiality and devotion to justice for which he was noted. In April, 1882, on the death of Postmaster General Howe, President Arthur invited Judge Gresham to leave the bench and accept a seat in his cabinet as postmaster general. For a little more than two years Judge Gresham held this important office. In July, 1884, on the death of Secretary Folger, Judge Gresham was transferred to the treasury portfolio, but this office he resigned in a few months to accept the office of United States judge for the Seventh judicial district, made vacant by the retirement of Judge Drummond, of Chicago.

Judge Gresham was a candidate for the republican nomination for president in both 1884 and 1888. In 1888 he received 111 votes on the first ballot; his

AARON BROUGHTON CALLED BY DEATH

WELL KNOWN MAGNOLIA MAN IS SUMMONED HOME.

Cancer of the Stomach Could Not Be Successfully Treated. Despite That All in Human Power Was Done—Memorial Day in the County—Other County News.

MAGNOLIA, May 28.—Aaron Broughton, a highly respected citizen of this place, died Sunday night of cancer of the stomach. Everything that mortal power could do was done to save his life, but without avail and the funeral services were held at the Advent church on May 25, conducted by Rev. Scoville of Evansville. Elder Peterson of Footville, made some very appropriate and touching remarks after which the remains were laid beside his wife in the little cemetery behind the church. June 4, Rev. Mr. Bolster, of Aleira, Ill., will speak to the people of Magnolia, at the Advent church. There will be a social, either strawberry or ice cream, at Wallace Andrews, the night of May 31. Everybody invited. Exercises will be held at the Advent church May 30. Let all be interested enough to come at 10 o'clock and take part in this service. We ought to feel this a privilege instead of a duty to strew with flowers the graves of our dead heroes.

AFTON WOODMEN TO PICNIC.

They Will Celebrate at the Annual Outing at Madison.

AFTON, May 28.—Afton Camp No. 2192 M. W. A. will go to Madison on June 6, in a special car, over the C. & N. W. Ry., this much being settled at an adjourned meeting of the camp held on Tuesday evening last. It is expected that a goodly number of people from this vicinity will avail themselves of the unusually low rates and excellent transportation facilities offered to visit the capital city, and attend the greatest picnic event of the season. The regular meeting of the camp will be held next Friday evening at which final arrangements will be perfected. Another new application for adoption was received at the last meeting and others are on the way. Exercises in commemoration of Memorial day will be held at Lawton's hall, Thursday evening, participated in by old and young alike. Instrumental music, patriotic songs, appropriate recitations by the school children and short addresses on typical subjects will comprise the program, and a cordial invitation is extended to all, and especially the old soldiers, to be present. With the front end of the boiler crushed in and patched up with part of a packing case, engine 34 of the Janesville passenger, backed up from Beloit last Monday forenoon and went on to the Bower city for repairs. Inquiry developed the fact that the Janesville passenger on route for Caledonia, tried to pass freight train No. 39 on the same track at Beloit and both engines bore testimony to the failure of the experiment. All outstanding bills due the firm of H. B. Charles and son can be paid to U. G. Waite, as he is authorized to receive the same. All interested will please bear this in mind. J. B. Humphrey thinks his new iron truck wheels are just the thing and proudly exhibits them when occasion permits. Carpenter Kethelholm is putting new siding on Albert Stark's dwelling and making other improvements thereon. Miss Lizzie Nohr of Beloit, spent Sunday with Afton relatives. Mrs. M. McGree who has been quite sick is better at this writing. Miss Jeanette Reiter of Beloit was the guest of Vienna P. Waite Sunday. Henry R. Charles of Whitewater was in town Monday on business.

TRADE RATHER GOOD AT MILTON

Shipments From That Station This Week—Base Ball Club Victorious—Other Items.

MILTON, May 28.—Last week there was a goodly quantity of business at this station in carload shipments. Dawson & Co. of Janesville shipped one car each of hogs and cattle; Fetherston Bros. five of oats and two of ear corn and Bramhall & Fieldons of straw. The lovers of base ball were out in force Friday to see the game between the Milton and Richmond clubs. The home nine were victorious at the bat and won by a score of 34 to 6. One of the Richmond players got hit on the cheek bone while attempting to get a fly and had to retire from the game. The visitors beat the "Blue Diamonds" last year.

twice and expected another victory. The Milton club go to Clinton tomorrow and play the "Greys" of that village. There will not be any game here Friday on that account. Rev. G. R. Chambers preached an instructive sermon at Seventh Day Baptist church Saturday morning. Five new bicycles were delivered to buyers by Babcock this week. Four were Crawfords and one a Bolte. Hereafter itinerant merchants who come to Milton will be obliged to pay a license of two dollars per day and hawkers and peddlers at the rate of three dollars per day. This will be a boon to housewives who are plagued daily with "agents" and is a protection to our tax paying home merchants. The G. A. R. people speak in the highest praise of the Memorial sermon preached by Rev. Mr. Stephens. The Sunday train for Milwaukee leaves this station for Milwaukee at 7:50 a. m. and returning arrives at 9:20 p. m., giving people from 10 a. m. to 7:10 p. m. in the city. B. H. Wells is improving slowly and sits up some, but it will be some time before he is able to be in town. "Uncle" Tim Bachford enjoys good music, and while the martial band were playing Saturday night he got so interested that his lighted pipe in his coat pocket almost destroyed the coat.

LIMA GIRL SEVERELY INJURED

Fall From a Wagon Fractured Her Shoulder—Other News Notes.

LIMA, May 28.—T. Richards little daughter Ida fell from a wagon one day recently, breaking her shoulder. Fred Gould returned home from his western trip last Thursday. Mrs. J. Higgins and children of Whitewater, were late visitors at W. Masterson. About thirty village people attended the social at the North church, Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kutz were in Ft. Atkinson one day last week. Miss May Stevens spent Thursday and Friday with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Hull. C. L. Kinney came from Ft. Atkinson one day last week to see about his lot in our cemetery. Would it not be well for others to follow his example. Harry Wurster is in Eagle. Mr. and Mrs. Newkirk are entertaining relatives from Cookville. The League will serve ice cream and cake on Wednesday. Mr. Wurster's lawn next Friday evening, the weather permitting. All are welcome. Will Reed and wife came up from Janesville Saturday, and spent Sunday with relatives here. They also attended the memorial services at the U. B. church. E. Wright and wife of Monticello, are guests of relatives here. Mr. Anderson's father made him a visit last week. Mr. and Mrs. George Fuller were called to Millard last week by the sickness of a relative. Any one interested in the cleaning of the M. E. church, will please report at the aid society, which meets with Mrs. George Fuller tomorrow afternoon. George Osterheld and wife attended the funeral of Joseph Godfrey in Whitewater, Monday. Rev. Clark entertained a brother minister over Sunday. As Merston Saxo was going home on his bicycle Saturday evening, he collided with a passing vehicle. He escaped without injury, but the wheel was wrecked.

MEMORIAL DAY AT SHOPIERE.

Emmett D. McGowan Will Deliver the Address—Other News Notes.

SHOPIERE, May 28.—Memorial day exercises will be held at the Methodist church on May 30. A good programme has been prepared for the occasion, consisting of speaking, reading, martial music and songs. Emmett D. McGowan, of Janesville, will deliver an address. He is not a G. A. R. man, but he can talk patriotism as strong as any of the older ones. If you don't believe it, come and hear him and judge for yourself. Mrs. Harriet Kline, of Litchfield, Minn., is visiting her parents in this place. Rev. R. K. Maniton is slowly recovering from his illness, but is not improving as rapidly as desired. Charles Rice has been improving the roads in this place the past week, with the big road grader. The strawberry sociable held at Mrs. Burnham's on Wednesday evening was an enjoyable one for all present. Miss Emma Curtis, of Tennessee, is visiting relatives in this place. An ice cream sociable will be held at the Congregational church on Friday evening, May 31. A cordial invitation is extended to all. Mrs. Vincent Truesdell went to Rockford Saturday, to visit her son.

News From Cookville.

COOKVILLE, May 28.—W. B. Porter sold and delivered a hog to D. Stevens in Evansville last Wednesday, that weighed nine hundred and twenty-five pounds. The juvenile social was well attended and the little ones did splendidly. A song by Bernice Franklin was very nicely rendered. She is a little lady but nine years old. The receipts were $7.40. W. W. Porter of Janesville, was shaking hands here Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Stoneburner are visiting at Avon. Mr. and Mrs. Rice and daughter Belle attended the funeral of Mr. Jameson last Saturday at Magnolia. Mr. Newkirk and family visited at his father's in Lima last Sunday. Grace Speer is visiting the Misses Phillips in Footville this week. Susan M. Porter of Janesville, formerly of this place Sundayed at her uncle's J. P. Porters. Carl J. Carlson and Caroline Fracson were married Saturday at Stoughton and had their wedding supper at Joe Porter's. Miss Moore of Columbia visited at her mother's, Mrs. C. J. Millers, last week. Stella Millers' father left Saturday for his home in Columbus county after a visit of one week here. Mr. Ellis went to Orfordville to attend the teachers' meeting Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Sever Forest are happy—it is a little blackeyed girl. All of Mrs. D. M. Johnson's friends will be sorry to know that she is in very poor health.

BUSINESS MEN FIND THE FOUNT OF LIFE

THE OLD ASSOCIATION IS AGAIN ON ITS FEET.

Secretary Haselton Now Has Cash on Hand To Settle Up Old Scores, and the Members Decide on Future Plans—Dues Will Remain as Before.

Members of the Janesville Business Men's association were more fortunate than the late lamented Ponce de Leon, in their search for the fountain of youth, for they found it. Dr. Palmer opened the faucet that set the blood of the association in circulation, and he did it with a five dollar bill. Then others followed suit and soon Secretary Haselton could see $80 on the table in front of him and the financial stringency that has stared the association in the face, was over and the association, so to speak, "had money to burn." This wonderful revival of life in what many had termed a corpse, occurred, at the meeting held at the association rooms last night. Speeches were made by a number of business men who favored the revival of the association and the contributions for the payment of out-standing obligations and the purchase of new supplies followed. A committee was also named to call on the members who were absent and give them a chance to get on the loaded wagon while there were still a few reserved seats left.

No Change in The Dues.

The meeting discussed ways and means as well as ultimate objects, and the result was the formation of a plan to keep the association on the feet that so suddenly developed under it. Many different ideas were advanced but it seemed to be the unanimous idea of those present, that the initiation fee should be placed at $2 while the dues remain the same as heretofore. There had been a good deal of talk about making the dues $10 a year payable semi-annually but the idea did not seem to strike the popular chord and was abandoned. It was decided to fix the rooms in an inviting manner and keep them so. Another point on which the members seemed to be a unit was in regard to the use of the rooms by others than the members and the sentiment seemed to be in favor of the idea that those who wished to enjoy the privileges of the association should also be expected to share the burdens, so the rule, "for members only" was adopted. Under these regulations it is thought that the association will flourish and grow, which every good citizen should help it to do both with their influence and cash.

Will Accomplish Much Good.

It was with a good deal of satisfaction that the members talked over their work after the meeting had adjourned. "This is too good a city to be without such an organization," said one man who had devoted a good deal of energy to revive the dead organization. "Every town should have a business men's association for the advancement of the community that supports him and his family. I have always argued that Janesville business men were too level headed to let the association die and I am glad that my theory has been sustained. We must steer clear of the rocks upon which the old association was wrecked and the business men, the town and the citizens at large will feel the beneficial effects of its existence. The old association, before it got on the down grade, accomplished much good, and the new one can do even more."

GOOD HORSES RATHER SCARCE.

Local Buyers Find That Good Drivers Are Not Very Plentiful.

If any one has the opinion that good horses can be had for the asking, they are much mistaken, for "good drivers" or "coachers" are few and far between. A local horse buyer, who has just returned from an extended trip through the state, says that in all his years' experience he has never before seen the time when good drivers could not be found at some price. Many reasons are advanced, the main one being that all grades of horses being so plentiful of late years, and electricity and the bicycle have taken their places to such an extent that the large stock raisers of the west have not paid so much attention in breeding, until now a scarcity is being felt.

North Johnston News.

NORTH JOHNSTOWN, May 28.—Memorial service was fairly well attended. The choir rendered some nice music; several from Lima attended; and quite a number of old soldiers were present. The Woman's mission society will give a free entertainment at the F. W. B. church on the evening of June 7. A fine programme is being arranged, and they will spare no pains to make it interesting, so let everybody come. Ice cream to be served after the entertainment. Mrs. Brotherton and Mrs. Rev. J. S. Jones went to Janesville last week to do some shopping. E. C. Corey will lead the young people's meeting next Sunday night. Covenant meeting will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Ice cream festival will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Osborn, Saturday evening, June 1, to which all are cordially invited.

THE TOWN TALK OF A DAY.

YESTERDAY was our banner day so far this season, and for that matter since we have been in business. We actually sold fourteen buggies. The white collars and Henney buggies "got there." Oh, there's no use talking no such buggies are made any where else except Freeport, and all buggy men, if they will be honest and tell their true convictions, will tell you so. We were very fortunate in getting this buggy to sell as we will probably sell 500 this season. F. A. Taylor.

That's right; fill us up; run us over; take all the room, we don't care; it shows that our efforts are appreciated. We know that when such crowds come into our store as come here daily, that we have the shoes that meet public approval, and we know the prices are right, for the best makes of shoes in the world today at 50 cents on the dollar, and leather steadily advancing, is quite worthy of notice. Becker & Woodruff.

We no doubt sold more high grade shoes last Saturday than all the other stores combined. We found six men hardly enough; when any shoes in the house sold at $3. Watch for next Saturday; we are to give you a line of goods that will make your eyes stick out. We "karkulate" to make this year a hot one for old stocks. Keep one eye peeled. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

If these stocks were owned by some people, and leather advancing the way it is, they would push the price on shoes up and up in accordance with leather and the people would have to pay the price. We do just the contrary. We bought the stock so it now stands us but 30 cents on the dollar, and we're letting her go at 50 cents on the dollar. Best shoes ever put on a last. Becker & Woodruff.

Keep watching us for next Saturday, we'll endeavor to give you a greater benefit than we did last Saturday. We'll have plenty of help on hand this time, and everybody will get waited upon. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

It is wonderful how our trade is increasing. Since Saturday morning we have had much more than we could do. It seemed as if the people had come to understand that we had an article that was way above anything yet offered in the shoe line in Janesville, and at 50 cents on the dollar. Becker & Woodruff.

It was nearly 12 o'clock Saturday night before we could close our store. Our $3 sale proved to be a phenomenal success. You can always look to us for surprises. We shall always take pains to lead the procession and let others follow. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

Such a shoe business this town never knew before. We never realized that it could be done. The greatest demand for fine shoes ever saw. We could sell at 100 cents on the dollar but can make a very nice profit at 50 cents on the dollar. Becker & Woodruff.

We won't be afraid to meet you, and go around a block to avoid it, after selling you a pair of shoes. We have nothing but satisfactory goods in our house, all nice new factory stock bought this spring, and at just as low prices as trash. Lloyd & Son.

When you can lay down 50 cents and get a dollar's worth of fine shoes at the price shoe leather is now, and besides get them from a house that is known as the best shoe house in southern Wisconsin, isn't it about time you were getting them? Becker & Woodruff.

If we advertised to sell at half price we'd do so. We are selling nice new, no shop-worn shoes, just as cheap as those old stocks are being sold, and every shoe we sell is in style. It's the latest. Lloyd & Son.

We are selling shoes that are sought after. They are all new, direct from the factory, and have not been in some store from 10 to 20 years; and are selling just as cheap as shop-worn goods. Lloyd & Son.

The Ladies Aid society of the Baptist church will meet with Mrs. E. Brand, 163 Linn street, on Wednesday afternoon. All ladies of the church and society are cordially invited.

You run no chances in buying a Henney buggy, just take the Henney people's word for it and you'll never regret the action. They are the grandest buggy in the world today. F. A. Taylor.

Such a beautiful morning to buggy-ride; quite a number were out taking advantage of it, and the majority of buggies they rode in were the Henney. F. A. Taylor.

We are still making the shoe business hot. $3, $4 or $5 shoes going at from $1 to $2.50. Becker & Woodruff.

FINAL PLANS MADE FOR MEMORIAL DAY

COMMITTEES ARRANGE THE LACKING DETAILS.

Exercises Will Be Held at the Grand Stand This Year, To Prevent the Tramping on the Graves—Business Houses Requested To Close—Commander McDonald's Order Issued.

The joint Memorial day committee met last evening in the office of the Thoroughgood & Co. box factory, and perfected the final arrangements for Janesville's tribute to the soldier dead.

The exercises usually held in the Grand Army lot in the cemetery, will be held this season at the grand stand. The change was made to prevent the great crowd tramping over the graves. Arrangements were made to hold the exercises in a public hall in the evening in case of rain, but it is hoped this will not be necessary. The committee unanimously adopted a resolution requesting the business men to close their respective places of business from 1 to 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon, in order that all might have an opportunity to attend the Memorial exercises.

Committeeman C. J. Schottle was appointed a committee of one to arrange any further details necessary, and to correct any omissions that might be discovered, that everything might move along in harmony. The Imperial band will appear on this occasion in new uniforms. Post Commander Marion McDonald, of W. H. Sargent Post No. 20, G. A. R., has issued the following order:

GENERAL ORDER No. 3: Comrades of W. H. Sargent Post will report at Post hall on Thursday, May 30, at 1:20 sharp, in uniform; for the purpose of attending Memorial service. The Post will march from the hall at 1:30. All comrades, soldiers, sailors and Sons of Veterans, are invited to attend.

The citizens generally are requested to contribute flowers for decorations of graves, etc. The flowers can be left at the vacant store on the bridge, owned by Mr. Jeffris, Wednesday afternoon. By order of M. McDONALD, Post Com. E. O. KIMBERLEY, Adj't.

At the burning of a steamboat on the Hudson river forty years ago, many of the passengers were drowned. Among the bodies brought up from the bottom of the river by grappling was that of a man known to have been an excellent swimmer. Around his waist was a belt containing nearly $800 in gold. That told the story.

"In old and chronic cases of indigestion (dyspepsia or gastritis)—it is all the same—the sufferer develops a great variety of symptoms and often dies—poisoned by the products of his own torpid and inflamed stomach. His food instead of being digested, and so furnishing strength and physical substance, ferments and putrefies within him. The chief process of life is arrested at a vital point. The more he eats the worse off he is. And yet unless he can be fed he must also perish. People do so die daily, by thousands, but we doctors seldom have the moral courage to give the cause its true name lest we should be laughed at for our inability to cure so 'simple' a thing as indigestion. Simple? Why, it is the capstone of all complaints—and the mother of most of them."—So writes a famous English physician.

Some of the symptoms alluded to are these: Loss of appetite; distress after eating; heartburn and palpitation; giddiness; foul taste in the mouth; the rising of nauseous acids and gases into the throat; furred tongue; spots before the eyes; unaccountable weariness and fatigue; sluggish circulation; weakness and nervous prostration, constipation or diarrhoea; discolored skin, etc.

The sufferer's friends often advise him to cheer up; throw off his lethargy and eat freely. Bad advice. He knows better. "No," he answers. "I cannot; my food does me no good." He is right. Food now is gold in the spent swimmer's belt.

Take light nourishment, followed immediately by a dose of the Shaker Digestive Cordial—a new and radical remedy discovered and prepared by the Shakers of Mt. Lebanon, N. Y.—the essence of medicinal herbs and plants cultivated by them alone. Then continue with it. Relieves at once and soon cures. Pleasant to the palate and adapted to all constitutions. Trial bottles—which prove its merit—at ten for sale by nearly all druggists.

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE?

The Recorder takes The Gazette to task for accusing the democratic party of being responsible for the hard times, and the unsettled conditions that have prevailed during the past two years. If The Gazette was alone in the accusation the paper might be justly charged with prejudice and partisanship, but public sentiment, which is stronger than the utterances of any journal, pronounces the same verdict, and the democratic press of the country generally, acknowledges the fact by silent accord. Every election that has been held, whether municipal or state, north or south during the past twelve months has emphasized the truthfulness of the statement, in unmistakable terms. Thousands of laboring men who voted for a cheaper dinner pail ten years ago, have lost sight of the pail entirely, and are now working and voting for the success of the party that advocates protection to American labor. It is nonsense to talk about democracy being entitled to credit for returning prosperity.

Better times are coming in spite of democracy and for two very good reasons. First, because the wonderful vitality and recuperative energies of the country, are equal to any emergency and seconded because confidence based on a republican congress, elected by an overwhelming majority, will soon be in control of government affairs.

The man who talks about the labor of Europe or England being well paid, as compared with American labor is sadly lacking in knowledge easily attained. Every intelligent man knows that American labor is the best paid labor in the world, and that because of this fact hundreds of thousands of foreigners, flock to our shores every year. The tide of immigration flows but one way. American born citizens never go abroad to find work in the factories of the old world. The pauper labor of England is not only a well organized fact, but pauperism itself is well developed. It was stated recently in the house of commons by Mr. Kerr Hardin, a labor member of parliament, that 1,036,000 men were out of employment in England alone. The poor houses of that country were taxed to their utmost capacity.

The policy of the democratic party, if permitted to govern for ten years, would permanently reduce the wages of American labor fifty per cent; and yet the party claims to be the friend of the poor man, and the people's party. Lack of confidence was the keynote of the panic of '93. Capital, that builds and equips factories, and furnishes employment to the masses, did not endorse the theories, and free trade tendencies of democracy, and for months before the panic appeared on the surface, retrenchment had been going on. The result was idleness and hard times, these conditions continued until public sentiment said in unmistakable tones, we will no longer tolerate this party of theories, that have proved so detrimental and ruinous to American industries. Confidence is restored because of the faith that the people have in the republican party; the only thing that democracy has to do with it, is to let go when their term of office expires. If the democratic party is not responsible for the condition of the country during the past two years, who is?

Chief Justice Field is a man of the right sort. While in feeble health and anticipating retirement from active work, he said the other day that if the Lord spared his life he would continue to occupy his position on the supreme bench, during this administration, giving as his reason, that his successor might declare the income tax constitutional and embarrass the country. The firm and uncompromising stand taken by Justice Field on this obnoxious question, had much to do with the final action of the supreme court. He belongs to the class of men whom the country, regardless of party will gratefully remember.

THE WORK OF CUPID.

Reisterer—Radtkke.

A quiet wedding took place at St. Mary's church, the contracting parties being Miss Amelia Radtkke and Simon Reisterer, both of this city. Following the ceremony a wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on Eastern avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Reisterer will make their home at the corner of Center and Linn streets. Both bride and groom are well known and many friends will wish them much joy.

NEWS OF LOCAL IMPORT.

The unbroken regularity of the visits of Dr. Brewer, the celebrated physician, is at once the best evidence of his professional standing, and of his success in the treatment of disease. Those out of health we believe, can have implicit confidence in Dr. Brewer, and feel certain in consulting with him, that he is thoroughly educated, with years of experience in the treatment of chronic diseases exclusively. He will be for consultation on his next visit at the Park hotel on Monday, June 3.

To have something people want is one of the greatest efforts of a business man's life. It isn't every business man who can sell what he has. We are very fortunate in that respect. ## A SUIT FOR SALARY BEFORE THE COURT

WILLIAM T. KING CLAIMS THAT

He Was in the Employ of the Whitman & Barnes Manufacturing Company, and Suit Follows a Disagreement About His Pay—Other News From About Town.

JUDGE BENNETT is engaged today taking testimony in the case of William T. King against the Whitman & Barnes Manufacturing Co. The action is brought to recover salary, the defendant being an Ohio corporation engaged in the manufacture and sale of agricultural machinery, and the amount involved is about four hundred dollars. Sutherland and Nolan appear for the plaintiff and Eger & Norcross for the defendant.

A GAME of ball was played on Drummond's diamond, south of this city, between the Happy Hollows and the Lightweights, which resulted in a victory for the Happy Hollows, by a score of seventeen to fifteen. Geiser and Terwilliger played the points for the Happy Hollows, while Rhodi and Good formed the battery for the Lightweights.

THE Wanamassa Athletic society base ball team seemed to have everything their own way in a game with the Pickets, which took place on Bunker hill. The Wanamassa battery was Flarey and Collins, while Quirk and Drapkin played the points for the Pickets. The score was 24 to 11 in favor of the Wanamassa.

THE Young Ladies' Sodality of St. Patrick's church gave a very pleasant dancing party at the Union Catholic League hall last evening, and the occasion was much enjoyed. About seventy-five couples attended, and Thomas J. Riley, John H. Leashey and T. J. Keenan acted as the floor managers.

SHERIFF APPLEBY is bound to have all modern conveniences at the county jail. The latest addition is a well equipped gymnasium, on the second floor, which contains all the necessary articles, from the punching bag down to the ball and chain.

BOY ROBS THE MAN WHO SET HIM FREE

SHAMELESS YOUNG THIEF IS CAPTURED HERE.

Henry Hummel, Aged 17, Took $500 Belonging to His Employer, H. Heller, Who Had Once Got Him Out of Reform School, and Came to Janesville.

It was a nice little Banker Seeley plot that seventeen year old Herman Hummel laid out before he stole $500 from Henry Heller the man who had befriended him and left Waunakee, Wis., and came to Janesville Saturday morning.

However, it miscarried and Hummel is now in jail here and Mr. Heller has recovered about $400 of his money while Hummel will go back to the reform school at Waunakee from which institution Mr. Heller secured his release.

Mr. Heller is a stock buyer and grain dealer at Waunakee, a small town of about six hundred inhabitants and Hummel was employed about the place. Once before he had gotten into trouble and was sent to the reform school for stealing $3 from a minister. His relatives went to Mr. Heller, who is a prominent citizen of the little village, and he succeeded in getting Hummel out on parole and gave him employment. All went well until Mr. Heller was called to Chicago one day on business, and then Hummel disappeared. Mr. Heller was notified by telegram that the boy was gone and when he turned home he found that $500 in cash was also missing.

Hummel is Traced.

Hummel in the meantime had told a young man at Waunakee that he was going to Janesville to learn telegraphy, but for him not to tell Heller as he did not want his employer to know where he was. The young man said nothing until he learned that Heller's cash had disappeared—too, and then he told what Hummel had said about coming to the Bower City. Heller at once came to Janesville and this morning told Sheriff Appleby his mission, and the two took a position at the doorway of Valentine's school, to await Hummel's coming. They didn't have to wait long, for Hummel was one of the first to arrive.

"There he is," said Mr. Heller, as he pointed to Hummel and Sheriff Appleby at once placed him under arrest. When the jail was reached and Hummel was searched and $380 in cash was found in his pockets. This the sheriff took charge of and Hummel said that he had paid his railroad fare, bought a suit of clothes, and paid for his scholarship at the telegraph school with the balance. Chief of Police Acheson visited T. J. Ziegler's store where the clothes were bought and they agreed to refund the money as did also Valentine Bros., on condition that Hummel be returned to the reform school.

Had a Plan Made.

Young Hummel didn't go into the robbery business without making some plans as to how he was going to get out of it again. After taking the money he boarded a train at 3 o'clock Saturday morning and came straight to Janesville. He evidently thought the young man to whom he told his intentions would not say anything about the matter, and rested easy on that score. Then he wrote a letter to his sister, telling her that he was safe and well, and that he had a position at ten dollars a month. He also told her that he would send her his salary regularly, and for her to address him as "Peter Carlson, general delivery, Milwaukee, Wis." afterward making arrangements to get the mail so sent, here. However, he had no such position, and the money he calculated to send to her was a part of that taken from Heller. When he was arrested this morning he pleaded with Mr. Heller to give him one more chance, and promised that he would never do anything wrong again. Hummel will probably go back to the reform school from which place Mr. Heller secured his release, he having been sentenced to stay there until he was of age, and being released on his good behavior.

WIND TOO STRONG FOR THE FLAG
Bunting that Was Half Masted For Secretary Gresham Had To Come Down.

As soon as the death of Secretary of State Gresham was announced this morning flags were displayed at half mast on the firestations and on the Grand Army hall. Soon after hoisting the flag on the west side station the halliards broke and the flag came down. The wind was too strong to permit the men working on the tower with safety, so the flag was not restored. The force of the wind in the afternoon appeared to increase, and the flag at the east side station was taken down, the tower on which the flag staff is anchored, not being as sound as it might be, and it was deemed best not to take any risk.

S. B. HEDDLES GOES TO EUROPE
He and His Son Will Take a Tour of the Old Country

Alderman S. B. Heddles and son Charles, leave tomorrow for New York and on Thursday they will sail for Liverpool. After making a tour of England, Scotland, Ireland, Germany and perhaps France, they will return home. Alderman Heddles said that the trip was not wholly for pleasure; that he had business which demanded his attention over on the other side, and that he thought it a good opportunity for him and his son to see some of the sights. Many friends will wish him and his son a pleasant voyage and safe return.

WORK ON THE SEWER IS BEGUN

A Force of Men Have Commenced the Pleasant Street Drain.

A force of men have commenced work on the much talked of Pleasant street sewer, and Contractor Finley says he will rush the job through as soon as possible. They did the first digging at the lower bridge, where a drop of nine feet will take place, so as to give it plenty of slope. From the bridge they will gradually work up Pleasant street, and as the work progresses, a larger force of men will be put on. There being a gradual slope all the way, very little trouble in the way of proper drainage is feared.

HARRY SMITH BITTEN BY A DOG.

Dr. Whiting Dressed the Wound Which Was an Ugly One.

While a number of children were on their way to school yesterday morning, a dog was seen to rush out from the residence of J. H. Jones on Oakland avenue. The animal, which was never considered an ugly one, nipped at the boys and finally grabbed Harry Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Smith, 263 South Main street, biting deep into the boy's leg, causing a bad wound. The dog was soon killed and Dr. J. B. Whiting was called and dressed the boy's wound.

TEST THE DRUG LAW IN MADISON COURTS

SEC'Y HEIMSTREET STARTS
THE FIRST PROSECUTION.

Madison Apothecary Charged with a Violation, Declares That the Law Is Unconstitutional, and He Will Fight the Suit to the End—No Move Made in Janesville Men's Cases.

Janesville druggists who were visited by an agent of the state board of pharmacy, may be interested in the fact that as a result of the investigation of a detective or agent who has been making the rounds of Madison drug stores looking up alleged violations of the pharmacy law, District Attorney Anderson has served summons on Andrew A. Mayers, to answer a charge of violating the law. The district attorney acted on the request of E. B. Heimstreet, of Janesville, secretary of the state board, who sent affidavit that Mr. Mayers had violated the law, and asked that he be prosecuted. The district attorney has not started criminal action, but a civil process for the forfeiture of his license with a liability of fifty dollars and costs. Mr. Mayers proposes to fight the case, and says he will take it to the supreme court if necessary on the ground that the law is unconstitutional. The action will be heard before Justice of the Peace Lyman, and is returnable May 31.

Just what will be done in the Janesville cases, if anything at all is done, is not known. The Janesville men, it is said, were not found to have done anything at all serious, their neglect, if it can be so called, being purely an oversight leaving the store in charge of someone other than a registered pharmacist. In no case, it is said, was there any irregularity in the sale of poisons, etc. The penalty for the infraction of the rule requiring a registered pharmacist to be in charge is $50. Probably no further action will be taken until the legality of the law, etc., is settled by a test case, but it is said that the state board has plenty of evidence against druggists in all parts of the state as the result of the tour of investigation.

TURNKEY Ray North captured a crazy man, who was frightening Forest Park people this afternoon and locked him up.

TALMAGE'S SERMON.

THE GREATEST SOLDIER OF ALL TIME, THE TEXT.

"There Shall Not Any Man Be Able to Stand Before Thee All the Days of Thy Life," Joshua 1:5 — To the Soldier Boys.

ROOKLYN, N. Y., May 26.—In the Embury Memorial church a large audience assembled this evening to listen to the annual sermon of Chaplain T. DeWitt Talmage of the Thirtieth Regiment, N. G. S. N. Y. The members of the regiment occupied the body of the church. Dr. Talmage chose for his subject: "The Greatest Soldier of All Time," the text being Joshua 1:5: "There shall not any man be able to stand before thee all the days of thy life."

The "gallant Thirtieth," as this regiment is generally and appropriately called, has gathered to-night for the worship of God, and to hear the annual sermon. And first I look with hearty salutation into the faces of the veterans who, though now not in active service, have the same patriotic and military enthusiasm which characterized them when, in 1863, they bade farewell to home and loved ones, and started for the field, and risked all they held dear on earth for the re-establishment of the falling United States government. "All that a man hath will he give for his life," and you showed yourselves willing to give your lives. We hail you! We thank you! We bless you, the veterans of the Thirtieth. Nothing can ever rob you of the honor of having been soldiers in one of the most tremendous wars of all history, a war with Grant, and Sherman, and Hancock, and Sheridan, and Farragut on one side, and Lee, and Stonewall Jackson, and Longstreet, and Johnston on the other. As in Greek assemblages, when speakers would rouse the audience, they shouted "Marathon!" so if I wanted to stir you to acclamation, I would only need to speak the words, "Lookout Mountain," "Chancellorsville," "Gettysburg." And though through the passage of years you are forever free from duty of enlistment, if European nations should too easily and too quickly forget the Monroe doctrine, and set aggressive foot upon this continent, I think your ankles would be supple again, and your arms would grow strong again, and your eye would be keen enough to follow the stars of the old flag wherever they might lead.

And next, I greet the Colonel and his staff, and all the officers and men of this regiment. It has been an eventful year in your history. If never before, Brooklyn appreciates something of the value of the armories, and the importance of the men who there drill for the defense and safety of the city. The blessing of God be upon all of you, my comrades of the Thirtieth Regiment! And looking about for a subject that might be most helpful and inspiring for you, and our veterans here assembled, and the citizens gathered to-night with their good wishes, I have concluded to hold up before you the greatest soldier of all time—Joshua, the hero of my text.

He was a magnificent fighter, but he always fought on the right side, and he never fought unless God told him to fight. In my text, he gets his military equipment, and one would think it must have been plumed helmet for the brow, greaves of brass for the feet, habergeon for the breast. "There shall not any man be able to stand before thee all the days of thy life." "Oh," you say, "anybody could have courage with such a backing up as that." Why, my friends, I have to tell you that the God of the universe and the Chieftain of eternity promises to do just as much for us as for him. All the resources of eternity are pledged in our behalf, if we go out in the service of God, and no more than that was offered to Joshua. God fulfilled this promise of my text, although Joshua's first battle was with the spring freshet; and the next with a stone wall; and the next, leading on a regiment of whipped cowards; and the next battle, against darkness, wheeling the sun and the moon into his battalion, and the last, against the King of Terrors, Death—five great victories.

For the most part, when the general of an army starts out in a conflict he would like to have a small battle in order that he may get his courage up and he may rally his troops and get them drilled for greater conflicts; but this first undertaking of Joshua was greater than the leveling of Fort Pulaski, or the thundering down of Gibraltar, or the overthrow of the Bastille. It was the crossing of the Jordan at the time of the spring freshet. The snows of Mount Lebanon had just been melting and they poured down into the valley, and the whole valley was a raging torrent. So the Canaanites stand on one bank and they look across and see Joshua and the Israelites, and they laugh and say: "Aha! aha! they cannot disturb us until the freshets fall; it is impossible for them to reach us." But after a while they look across the water and they see a movement in the army of Joshua. They say, "What's the matter now? Why, there must be a panic among these troops, and they are going to fly, or perhaps they are going to try to march across the river Jordan. Joshua is a lunatic." But Joshua, the chieftain of the text, looks at his army and cries: "Forward, march!" and they start for the bank of the Jordan.

One mile ahead go two priests carrying a glittering box four feet long and two feet wide. It is the Ark of the Covenant. And they come down, and no sooner do they just touch the rim of the water with their feet, than by an Almighty fiat, Jordan parts. The army of Joshua marches right on without getting their feet wet, over the bottom of the river, a path of chalk and broken shells and pebbles, until they get to the other bank. Then they lay hold of the oleanders and tamarisks and willow have they reached the bank thirty or forty feet high, and having gained the other bank, they clap their shields and their cymbals, and sing the praises of the God of Joshua. But no sooner have they reached the bank than the waters begin to dash and roar, and with a terrific rush they break loose from their strange anchorage. Out yonder they have stopped, thirty miles yonder they halted. On this side the waters roll off toward the salt sea. But as the hand of the Lord God is taken away from the thus uplifted waters—waters perhaps uplifted half a mile—as the Almighty hand is taken away, those waters rush down, and some of the unbelieving Israelites say: "Alas, alas, what a misfortune! Why could not those waters have stayed parted? Because perhaps we may want to go back. Oh, Lord, we are engaged in a risky business. Those Canaanites may eat us up. How if we want to go back? Would it not have been a more complete miracle if the Lord had parted the waters to let us come through and kept them parted to let us go back if we are defeated?" My friends, God makes no provision for a Christian's retreat. He clears the path all the way to Canaan. To go back is to die. The same gatekeepers that swing back the amethystine and crystalline gate of the Jordan to let Israel pass through, now swing shut the amethystine and crystalline gate of the Jordan to keep the Israelites from going back. I declare it in your hearing to-day, victory ahead, water forty feet deep in the rear. Triumph ahead, Canaan ahead; behind you death and darkness and woe and hell. But you say: "Why didn't those Canaanites, when they had such a splendid chance—standing on top of the bank thirty or forty feet high, completely demolish those poor Israelites down in the river. I will tell you why. God had made a promise and he was going to keep it. 'There shall not any man be able to stand before thee all the days of thy life.'"

But this is no place for the host to stop. Joshua gives the command, "Forward, march!" In the distance there is a long grove of trees, and at the end of the grove is a city. It is a city of arbors, a city with walls seeming to reach to the heavens, to buttress the very sky. It is the great metropolis that commands the mountain pass. It is Jericho. That city was afterward captured by Pompey, and it was afterward captured by Herod the Great, and it was afterward captured by the Mohammedans; but this campaign the Lord plans. There shall be no swords, no shields, no battering ram. There shall be only one weapon of war, and that a ram's horn. The horn of the slain ram was sometimes taken and holes were punctured in it, and then the musician would put the instrument to his lips, and he would run his fingers over this rude musical instrument, and make a great deal of sweet harmony for the people. That was the only kind of weapon. Seven priests were to take these rude rustic musical instruments, and they were to go around the city every day for six days—once a day for six days, and then on the seventh day they were to go around blowing these rude musical instruments seven times, and then at the close of the seventh blowing of the rams' horns on the seventh day the perforation of the whole scene was to be a shout at which those great walls should tumble from capstone to base.

Joshua's troops may not halt here. The command is: "Forward, march!" There is the city of Ai; it must be taken. How shall it be taken? A scouting party comes back and says: "Joshua, we can do that without you; it is going to be a very easy job; you just stay here while we go and capture it." They march with a small regiment in front of that city. The men of Ai look at them and give one yell and the Israelites run like reindeer. The northern troops at Bull Run did not make such rapid time as these Israelites with the Canaanites after them. They never cut such a sorry figure as when they were on the retreat. Anybody that goes out in the battles of God with only half a force, instead of your taking the men of Ai the men of Ai will take you. Look at the church of God on the retreat. The Bornesian cannibals ate up Munson, the missionary. "Fall back!" said a great many Christian people—"Fall back, oh church of God! Borneo will never be taken. Don't you see the Bornesian cannibals have eaten up Munson, the missionary?" Tyndall delivers his lecture at the University of Glasgow, and a great many good people say: "Fall back, oh church of God! Don't you see that Christian philosophy is going to be overcome by worldly philosophy? Fall back!" Geology plunges its crowbar into the mountains, and there are a great many people who say: "Scientific investigation is going to overthrow the Mosaic account of the creation. Fall back!" Friends of God have never any right to fall back.

Joshua falls on his face in chagrin. It is the only time you ever see the back of his head. He falls on his face and begins to whine, and he says: "Oh, Lord God, wherefore has thou at all brought this people over Jordan to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us? Would to God we had been content and dwelt on the other side of Jordan! For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land shall hear of it, and shall environ us round and cut off our name from the earth."

I am very glad Joshua said that. Before it seemed as if he were a supernatural being, and therefore could not be an example to us; but I find he is a man, he is only a man. Just as sometimes you find a man under severe opposition, or in bad state of physical health, or worn out with overwork, lying down and sighing about everything being defeated. I am encouraged when I hear this cry of Joshua as he lies in the dust.

God comes and rouses him. How does he rouse him? By complimentary apostrophe? No. He says: "Get thee up. Wherefore liest thou upon thy face?" Joshua rises and I warrant you, with a mortified look. But his old courage comes back. The fact was, that was not his battle. If he had been in it he would have gone on to victory. He gathers his troops around him and says: "Now let us go up and capture the city of Ai; let us go up right away."

They march on. He puts the majority of the troops behind a ledge of rocks in the night, and then he sends a comparatively small battalion up in front of the city. The men of Ai come out with a shout. This battalion in stratagem fall back and fall back, and when all the men of Ai have left the city and are in pursuit of this scattered, or seemingly scattered, battalion, Joshua stands on a rock—I see his locks flying in the wind as he points his spear towards the doomed city, and that is the signal. The men rush out from behind the rocks and take the city, and it is put to the torch, and then these Israelites in the city march down and the flying battalion of Israelites return, and between these two waves of Israelitish prowess gain the victory; and while I see the curling smoke of that destroyed city on the sky, and while I hear the huzza of the Israelites and the groan of the Canaanites, Joshua hears something louder than it all, ringing and echoing through his soul: "There shall

The above little clipping from the great New York Herald may be taken as an indication that the press and the public are beginning to see the question in another light. We could write volumes on the subject, but perhaps you would not wade through them. This, however, we will assert here:—The drug store is the proper place to get anything in the drug line, and we can prove that our prices are as low and our goods as good as anywhere else in town. ALL FAMILIES WANT
THE GAZETTE PRIZEBABY CONTEST IS GETTING VERY SPIRITED.

Five Hundred Dollars Worth of Building and Loan Association Stock Is a Nice Nest Egg For a Three Year Old and the Vote Between Several Contestants is Very Close.

The time is not far distant now, when some Janesville baby will get The Gazette's $500 prize. The ballot closes June 1, and then the prize will be awarded. Five hundred dollars is a nice sum for a baby to begin life with. Put it out at interest and when the babe becomes the man or woman, enough cash for a start in life is available.

Do not think that you can sit down and wait for that $500 to come to your home. The ballots are piling up rapidly, for, naturally enough, $500 is enough to encourage every father and mother in Janesville to strive for that prize for their "ownest own." Competition is getting strong as the time begins to narrow down and in this case the old adage, "everything comes to he who waits" is far from true. It should be "everything comes to he who hustles." The Gazette has been asked many times to publish the vote as it stands, but this would not be fair. It would tell Brown that Jones was leading him, and The Gazette wishes to treat all hands alike. However, the count is close between several contestants up to date, and, like everything else, the "early bird," etc., applies.

The Gazette's offer is this:

The baby receiving the highest number of votes will be presented with $500 worth of stock in the Rock County Building, Loan & Savings Association.

It will buy an education.

It will buy a building lot.

It will buy a piano and the lessons necessary to play upon it.

It is more than many people are able to save in a life time.

Of course all the mothers and fathers want it for their babe. How to get it is told below:

The polls opened on May 1st and will remain open until June 1. The baby that receives the most ballots in that time will receive a certificate calling for these five shares of stock. There are no dues to be paid, no assessments to be met, no installments to provide for. The stock stands for $500 in cash and on its maturity, which will be in nine and one-third years, the money will be ready. The prize is a handsome one—it is well worth winning and the conditions of the ballot are as follows:

From March 1 until June 1, a coupon will be printed in each issue of The Gazette.

Any one, anywhere in any state is entitled to vote as often as they buy a copy of The Janesville Gazette containing the above ballot.

Out the ballot out (trimming on the dotted lines). Write in the name of your candidate and enclose same in an envelope addressed to Ballot Editor, Gazette, Janesville, Wis.

Only one person can be voted for on one ballot.

The baby who receives the largest number of votes will receive five shares of stock in the Rock County Building & Savings Association, cash value, $500 at maturity.

The contest will close June 1 at 9 p. m., and the stock will be delivered as soon as the count of votes is completed.

Any non-subscriber who will subscribe for The Gazette and pay in advance will be entitled to the following number of ballots:

New subscriber paid in advance one month, 100 votes.

New subscriber paid in advance two months, 250 votes.

New subscriber paid in advance six months, 900 votes.

New subscriber paid in advance one year, 2,000 votes.

Each new subscriber who pays in advance and casts the number of votes specified is also entitled, of course, to cut coupons from the paper from day to day and vote in the regular manner.

No person will be allowed extra votes for stopping his paper and having it sent to another name at the same address.

In every instance they must be bona fide new subscribers.

No person will be allowed to stop his paper on Monday and start it again Tuesday and claim the premium offered.

No votes can be transferred from one candidate to another after being registered in this office.

Candidates must not be more than three years of age March 1, 1895, and must live in Janesville.

THE BALLOT.

The Publishers of "The Janesville Gazette" will give 5 Shares of stock in the Rock County Building, Loan & Savings Association to the Baby who receives the largest number of ballots.

SUNDAY'S SERMON
BY DR. TALMAGE

not any man be able to stand before thee all the days of thy life." But this is no place for the host of Joshua to stop. "Forward, march!" cries Joshua to the troops. There is the city of Gibeon. It has put itself under the protection of Joshua. They sent word: "There are five kings after us; they are going to destroy us; send troops quick; send us help right away." Joshua has a three days' march more than double quick. On the morning of the third day he is before the enemy. There are two long lines of battle. The battle opens with great slaughter, but the Canaanites soon discover something. They say: "That is Joshua; that is the man who conquered the spring freshet and knocked down the stone wall and destroyed the city of Ai. There is no use fighting." And they sound a retreat, and as they begin to retreat Joshua and his host spring upon them like a panther, pursuing them over the rocks, and as these Canaanites with sprained ankles and gashed foreheads retreat, the catapults of the sky pour a volley of hailstones into the valley and all the artillery of the heavens with bullets of iron pounds the Canaanites against the ledges of Beth-horon.

"Oh!" says Joshua, "this is surely a victory." "But do you not see the sun is going down?" Those Amorites are going to get away after all, and they will come up some other time and bother us, and perhaps destroy us." See, the sun is going down. Oh, for a longer day than has ever been seen in this climate! What is the matter with Joshua? Has he fallen in an apoplectic fit? No. He is in prayer. Look out when a good man makes the Lord his ally. Joshua raises his face, radiant with prayer, and looks at the descending sun over Gibeon, and at the faint crescent of the moon, for you know the queen of the night sometimes will linger around the palaces of the day. Pointing one hand at the descending sun and the other hand at the faint crescent of the moon, in the name of that God who shaped the worlds and moves the worlds, he cries: "Sun, stand thou still upon Gibeon; and thou moon, in the valley of Ajalon." And they stood still. Whether it was by refraction of the sun's rays, or by the stopping of the whole planetary system, I do not know, and do not care. I leave it to the Christian scientists and the infidel scientists to settle that question, while I tell you I have seen the same thing. "What?" say you, "not the sun standing still?" Yes. The same miracle is performed nowadays. The wicked do not live out half their day, and the sun sets at noon. But let a man start out and battle for God, and the truth, and against sin, and the day of his usefulness is prolonged, and prolonged, and prolonged.

But it is time for Joshua to go home. He is a hundred and ten years old. Washington went down the Potomac, and at Mount Vernon closed his days. Wellington died peacefully at Apsley House. Now, where shall Joshua rest? Why, he is to have his greatest battle now. After a hundred and ten years he has to meet a king who has more subjects than all the present population of the earth, his throne a pyramid of skulls, his parterre the graveyards and cemeteries of the world, his chariot the world's hearse—the King of Terrors. But if this is Joshua's greatest battle, it is going to be Joshua's greatest victory. He gathers his friends around him and gives his valedictory, and it what they are going to do; old men tell what they have done.

And as you have heard a grandfather, or a great-grandfather, seated by the evening fire, tell of Monmouth, or Yorktown, and then lift the crutch or staff as though it were a musket, to fight, and show how the old battles were won—so Joshua gathers his friends around his dying couch, and he tells them the story of what he has been through, and as he lies there, his white locks snowing down on his wrinkled forehead, I wonder if God has kept his promise all the way through—the promise of the text. As he lies there he tells the story one, two, or three times—you have heard old people tell a story two or three times over—and he answers: "I go the way of all the earth and not one word of the promise has failed, not one word thereof has failed; all has come to pass, not one word thereof has failed." And then he turns to his family, as a dying parent will, and says: "Choose now whom you will serve, the God of Israel, or the God of the Amorites. As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord." A dying parent can not be reckless or thoughtless in regard to his children. Consent to part with them at the door of the tomb we cannot. By the cradle in which their infancy was rocked, by the blood of which they first lay, by the blood of the Covenant, by the God of Joshua, it shall not be. We will not part, we cannot part. Jehovah Jireh, we take thee at thy promise: "I will be a God to thee and thy seed after thee."

years of age. Lay him out; stretch out those feet that walked dry shod the parted Jordan. Close those lips which helped blow the blast at which the walls of Jericho fell. Fold the arm that lifted the spear toward the doomed city of Ai. Fold it right over the heart that exulted when the five kings fell. But where shall we get the burnished granite for the headstone and the footstone? I bethink myself now. I imagine that for the head it shall be the sun that stood still upon Gibeon, and for the foot, the moon that stood still in the valley of Ajalon.

New Religious Sect at Zalma, Mo.

A new sect of religious worshippers has sprung into existence in Zalma, Mo., and is attracting widespread attention. The Rev. Joe Shrader is the shepherd of the new flock. The center of attraction is a young girl who makes periodical flights to heaven, so it is claimed, returning with messages for the believers. The Rev. Shrader claims the Bible to be out of date, and proposes to establish a new code obtained from headquarters through the instrumentality of his "angel."

A TRUE STORY.

Last month I cleared after paying all expenses, $235.38; the month before $186.36 and have at the same time attended to my regular business. I believe anyone, anywhere, can do as well, as I have not a particularly good location and not much experience. When you have an article that every family wants, it is very easy selling it. It seems strange that a good, cheap dish washer was never before placed on the market. With the Perfection, which sells for $5 you can wash and dry the dishes for a family in two minutes, without putting the hands in water. As soon as people see the washer work, they want one, and that is why so much money can be made so quickly. For full particulars address The Perfection Mfg. Co., Station O, Englewood, Ill. I feel convinced that any lady or gentleman, in any location can make $5 to $10 a day, as every family will very soon have a dish washer. Try it and publish your experience for the benefit of others. ALICE O.

Wisconsin Carriage Top Co.

It is doubtful indeed, if in all the great west you can find a person who knows anything at all about buggies, that has not heard of the Wisconsin King, Albarmarle Stanhope or some other make of this firm. They are the product of the Wisconsin Carriage Top Co. of Janesville, Wis., where they have a large well equipped buggy factory, and at the present time are running full force, and then away behind in their orders. The buggies this firm makes are in great demand. Many of the best people in their home town, Janesville, will ride in no other buggy, and it will be but a matter of a short time until they will be turning out double the number, as the demand will force them to increase their facilities.

Teachers' Meeting.

A teachers' meeting will be held in Beloit, at the high school building, on June 8, 1895, under the auspices of the Rock County Teachers' Association. The cities of Janesville, Madison, Whitewater, Beloit and perhaps others will be represented. A most enthusiastic and beneficial meeting is expected. Papers will be rendered by some of our most able teachers. Everybody is invited to be present. Programme later. Yours truly, E. M. Cox, Sec'y, Beloit.

Big Clothing Day.

Yesterday and Saturday were the best clothing days we have experienced in a long time.
